ENJOY THE PRISTINE
WETLANDS, RIVERS
AND COUNTRY OF
THE AURUKUN ARTISTS

M.V. PIKKUW

For an enchanting experience in one of the last truly remote areas of Australia, cruise aboard the MV Pikkuw and interact with the Traditional Owners of the Aurukun area. Their intimate relationship with the land and the water will make this truly a one of a kind experience.

The Aurukun wetlands area is an untouched environment ideally suited to eco-tours. It features a wide range of birdlife, flora and fauna, and relaxing river cruises.

The eco-tour charter provides a unique way to explore an untouched natural world, with interpretation and insight from the Wik and Wik Way people.

Trip highlights include:

- Bush tucker and bush medicine walks
- Basket weaving demonstrations
- Swimming in pristine water holes
- Fishing for breakfast
- Harvesting honey from native sting-less bees
- Art and story place interpretation by elders and artists
- Bird watching
- Croc spotting
- Art Centre visits can be arranged on request
